

Front-Line Responders Fund

Application Deadline: October 15, 2020

Value: Up to $500. Award amount will be determined based on the number of applications received.

The Front-Line Responders Fund has been established to provide financial support to Webster University students who are continuing to pursue their education while serving as front-line healthcare workers during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Who is eligible?

Students who are employed as front-line healthcare workers and enrolled in a minimum of six hours for the Fall, 2020 semester are eligible to apply.

Name: _____ Student Number _____

Phone: _____

Email Address: _____

Graduate _____ Undergraduate _____

Major: _____

Employer: _____

Position: _____

In the space provided, please provide a personal attestation regarding your work on the front line during COVID-19 while, at the same time, continuing your education.

Return completed application to:

Shannon Frank | Advancement Services
franksr@webster.edu